

Bring to Camp

We recommend that your name is on all belongings. We find many items each year with no name. Three weeks after camp we donate all items to a worthy cause.

- Warm sleeping bag (camp is at 4500 feet elevation and nights can be very cold) and pillow.
- An extra blanket to put over your sleeping bag.
- Your Bible (the old fashioned paper kind - not electronic)
- Pen/pencil
- Warm jacket
- Water resistant outerwear – it does rain sometimes!!
- Flashlight with fresh batteries
- Sunscreen & hat
- Water bottle (refillable)
- Chapstick or lip balm
- Insect repellent
- Camera (if you want some cool pictures for your scrapbook), make sure your name is on it.
- Spending Money – Usually $30-50 is plenty.
(Please bring $1 & $5 dollar bills) for Crafts, Snacks, Go-carts, and Paintball.
Some years we have T-shirts or camp themed items for sale too.
- Postage stamps if you plan to write home.
- Toiletries (all the stuff that you need to make yourself beautiful or handsome).
- Fishing gear (we have fishing poles to loan too – it's catch and release only).
- Plenty of clothes for the week (check the dress code).
- Two pairs of closed toed shoes for activities
- Cabin 'annual theme' decorations (indoor/outdoor)
- A great attitude
- A willingness to learn

Leave at Home

- Cell phones (no signal up there either)
- Electronic gizmos (Game players/system, iPods, iPhones, electronic Bibles, etc.)
- Your Awana Uniform
- Any type of weapon
- Matches
- Snacks (including gum)
- Water Guns
- Bad Attitudes

We have multiple locations for Lost & Found at camp: bathrooms, dining tent, fence at the beach & a large tarp out front on pick-up day – it is wise to browse on occasion!
